

LEARNING RESOURCE PACK

Completely Cassidy: Star Reporter

This Learning Resource Pack is presented in two sections; Guided Reading Activities and Talking Points, and is aimed at enhancing and improving children's understanding and reflection of what they read through a range of activities linked to the book.

The Guided Reading activities will allow children to consider aspects of the book as they read and can be used as a whole to support guided reading sessions or used as part of a literacy lesson where this book is the focus.

The Talking Points section works much in the same way as a book club section in an adult book and provides points which could be discussed further. These can be used to support the Guided Reading Sessions above, further discussion in literacy lessons or used as the stimulus in P4C (Philosophy for Children) sessions.
